'Go Green, Live Green' this Sunday at institute

KUALA LUMPUR: In conjunction with World Environment Day, the Forest Research Institute Malaysia (Frim) in Kepong is organising a Green Fest Sunday to promote and create more awareness on an environmentally friendly lifestyle.

Various activities have been lined up for children, youth, and parents from 8am to 3 pm on learning ways to 'Go Green, Live Green' in a fun way, a Frim statement here says.

Among the activities are the promotion of recycling as a way of life, learning more about the research work of Frim scientists, as well as the conservation work of the Worldwide Fund For Nature (WWF) Malaysia and the Malaysian Nature Society.

There will also be car boot sale of used household items, tree climbing demonstration, guided tour of the various nature trails in Frim, exploration of the canopy walkway, face and T-shirt painting and colouring contest for children, besides entertainment provided by TV3 and Suria FM. — Bernama
