public parks

KIARA Park TTDI, provided with multiple jogging tracks, stretching station and playground, is surrounded by greenery and a calming man-made waterfall. The open area by the waterfall is perfect for picnics but be alert, as monkeys can be seen lurking around in the trees.

THE Kepong Botanical park is undoubtedly one of the most peaceful parks in the city. Located within the Forest Research Institute Malaysia (FRIM), the park was developed for research opportunities in botany, horticulture, landscape and other related fields. Joggers, cyclists and hill climbers are among those who have been seen enjoying the park.

TAMAN Tasik Permaisuri is located near the Hospital Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (HUKM) in Cheras. The park is busy with activities, especially on the weekends.
