Public parks to visit

Kiara Park at TTDI

VISITORS WILL FIND

this park provided with multiple jogging tracks, stretching stations and playgrounds, and surrounded by greenery as well as a calming man-made waterfall. The open area by the waterfall is perfect for picnics but be alert, as monkeys can be seen lurking around in the trees.

Kepong Botanical Park

ONE OF THE

most peaceful parks in the city. Located within the Forest Research Institute Malaysia (FRIM), this park was developed for research opportunities in botany, horticulture, landscape and other related fields. Joggers, cyclists and hill climbers are among those who have been seen enjoying the park.

Taman Tasik Permaisuri

LOCATED NEAR HOSPITAL

Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (HUKM) in Cheras, this park is usually busy with activities, especially on weekends.
