Nancy receives courtesy call from 78 community leaders

KUCHING: Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Nancy Shukri received a friendly visit from 78 community leaders from her Batang Sadong parliamentary constituency last Tuesday.

The visit was led by Temenggong of Samarahan Division Anthony ak Nyipa who were here on a four-day visit to Kuala Lumpur.

According to Nancy, the trip to the federal capital was for the purpose of gaining experiences and broadening outlooks so that they could share what they learned later with people back in their areas.

The exposure would also give them chances to enhance networking among themselves and others for their benefits, pointed out Nancy.

Meanwhile, during their trip to the parliament, the delegation members were accorded a briefing session on laws and regulations as well as the management procedure in parliament. They also had the chance to witness parliament in session.

Nancy thanked all Members of Parliament from Sarawak in jointly helping out with the visit.

Among the places they visited included FRIM, MPOB, Kuala Lumpur City and its surrounding.
