Senate adjourns after passing 8 Bills

KUALA LUMPUR: The Dewan Negara sitting which was held for 11 days beginning April 18, has been adjourned to a date to be fixed later.

During its first meeting of the fourth session of the 13th Parliament, the Senate passed eight Bills - four new ones and four amendments.

The new bills were the Supplementary Supply Bill (2015)

2016; Forest Research Institute of Malaysia Bill 2016; Companies Bill 2015; and Interest Schemes Bill 2015.

While the four amendments were the Dangerous Drugs (Special Preventive Measures) (Amendment) Bill 2015; Legal Profession (Amendment) Bill 2015; Child (Amendment) Bill 2015 and Social Security (Amendment) Bill 2016.
