

FRIM Series Publications: Guidelines to Authors

TITLE	OBJECTIVE	CONTENTS	TARGET	FREQUENCY
Research Pamphlet	To record lengthy observations & experimentations	Results of research works where the author describes in detail materials and methods used, extensively discusses the results and provides conclusive conclusion. Includes numerous tables, graphs and photographs or extensive review of literature or directory of particular field/subject.	Scientific community	Occasional
Malayan Forest Records	To record lengthy detailed research, analysis and in-depth discussion	Contains comprehensive and in-depth treatment of a subject. Serves as an authoritative reference text, manual or guide book.	Researchers, foresters, people in the forest industries, timber trade & industry, students	Occasional
Tree Flora of Sabah & Sarawak	To give account of families of trees that occur in Sabah and Sarawak	Contains descriptions, identification keys, distribution, ecology, illustrations and plates.	Botanists, conservation biologists, forest managers, lectures and students	Biennially
FRIM Technical Information Handbook	To provide detailed research as an elaborative, comprehensive and consultative ready reference in a particular field or about a particular technique	Contains extensive review of literature on a particular subject or Step by step explanation of a particular process, method or approach. Includes numerous photographs, figures and graphs	Researchers, foresters, people in the forest industries, timber trade & industry, students	Occasional
Siri Alam & Rimba	To create awareness and understanding about nature and its resources among the public	Information regarding nature, environment, plants and animals.	Layman, students	Occasional
FRIM Technical Information	To inform the public and industries of FRIM's research especially those of direct and practical relevance in a layman language	Article possesses many photographs, graphs and charts to facilitate explanation of a certain process.	Industries, government, departments such as MTIB, MTC, JPSM	Occasional

FRIM Report	To publish working papers and semi-technical papers on forestry and forest products	Semi-tech information of forestry & forest products research or information from working papers presented in seminars/conferences not expected to be published.	Researchers, forest managers, students, public	Occasional
Timber Technology Bulletin	To provide readers with short, easy to read and useful information on the properties, processing technology, and utilisation of timber and wood-based products	Information on activities of wood-based industries, properties of wood/raw material, processing of a product, utilisation properties of forest product	Industries related to processing of sawn timber, preservation, plywood, particleboard and manufacture of finished timber products	Occasional
Siri Kenali...	To provide useful information on plants or processes in simple, layman language	Information brochure in Malay Language, containing many photographs.	General public and students	When available
FRIM/NRE Annual Report	To highlight the research accomplishments & impact of FRIM, significant happenings at FRIM and to present the financial report for the year	Carries information of FRIM's organisation chart, outstanding research awards, significant activities, staffing and financial report for the year.	Government departments, statutory bodies, corporate bodies, public	Annually
FRIM Research Report	To publish progress reports of R&D conducted at FRIM for the year	Contains summary of findings of research findings and outputs for the year.	Scientific community, interested companies	Annually
FRIM Proceeding	To publish working papers presented at seminars/conferences organised/co-organised by FRIM	Working papers	Scientific community	Occasional
FRIM Special Publication	To publish general information of FRIM, beyond the scope of the above categories.	Coffee table books, compilations or specialised publications written in an easy-reading style with attractive design.	General public	Occasional