LEMBAH KIARA PARK in Taman Tun Dr Ismail has multiple jogging tracks, a stretching station and a playground set amid lush greenery. A waterfall provides the perfect setting for picnics but do watch out for the monkeys in the trees.

KEPONG BOTANICAL PARK is one of the most peaceful parks in the city. Located within the Forest Research Institute Malaysia, the park was developed for research in botany and horticulture. Joggers, cyclists and hill climbers are among the park's visitors.

TAMAN TASIK PERMAISURI is near Hospital Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia in Cheras. The park is a hive of activity, especially on the weekends.
