FRIM Willing To Provide Help In Rebuild Forest

FRIM is willing to provide help in rebuilding the forest. The news was reported in the Nanyang Siang Pau on 05 Jul 2012. The article was published in the National section with a circulation of 114,049. The language of the article is Chinese and the journalist is N/A. It was published daily with a PR Value of RM 1,614.

The article discusses the willingness of FRIM to provide assistance in rebuilding the forest. It mentions that FRIM is ready to support the efforts of various stakeholders. The article also highlights the role of FRIM in promoting sustainable forest management and conservation. The article concludes with a statement about the importance of forest conservation and the need for collaboration among various stakeholders.